Jewish Ottawa

Located in the Canadian capital city of Ottawa, Ottawa's 15,000 person Jewish community is vibrant, engaged and excited to continue building the Jewish Superhighway of meaningful Jewish experiences and journeys, with nobody left behind. They have a mix of diverse age ranges with a large baby-boomer population and many children and young adults. Close to one-third of the people in the community are under the age of 25. Jewish Ottawa is vibrant, welcoming and affordable. Ottawa offers all the amenities of Jewish communal life: wonderful Jewish schools, Kosher food, vibrant synagogues, an active Jewish Community Centre, and so much more. There are also 12 synagogues, which include the Chabad, Modern Orthodox, Conservative, Reform and Reconstructionist branches of Judaism. At its heart is the Jewish Community Campus, which is located in the west end at Broadview and Kerr Avenues. The campus is home to the Jewish Federation of Ottawa, the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation, the Soloway Jewish Community Centre, the InfoCentre, Ottawa Jewish Archives, The Bess and Moe Greenberg Family Hillel Lodge (a long-term senior's care facility), the Ottawa Jewish Community School, and Tamir (main office and day program facilities for adults with developmental disabilities). Ottawa: Canada's National Capital Ottawa is Canada's capital and a dynamic city of over one million people. It is located in the province of Ontario and is a city steeped in the richness of Canadian history and culture.

Ottawa's robust economy centres on two major sectors – high technology and the federal government and related services. Both sectors offer high-paying jobs for knowledge workers in a stable environment and account for 37% of Ottawa's total gross domestic product (GDP).

Home to world-class museums, galleries, live performances, festivals and Winterlude, there is always something to discover. Ottawa is an active city all year round. Summer offers an impressive number of outdoor hiking, biking and walking trails that connect neighbourhoods and suburbs. In winter, Ottawa boasts the world's longest skating rink and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Rideau Canal. Ski resorts, cottages and wilderness are all within an hour's drive. The nation's capital houses many embassies, consulates and missions, adding an international character to the city. With so many cultures mingling and mixing, Ottawa has an impressive variety of restaurants and cultural diversity that is second to none. As Canada's capital, it is highly cosmopolitan and yet maintains the friendliness, affordability and ease of a smaller city. Application Instructions
